.... to end the year, we have handpicked three Atlantic Seaboard speakers

13th September - Our very accomplished U3A member, Rodney Mazinter, with his many diverse interests and accomplishments, is also an advocate on 'The Water Crisis in Cape Town'. Join us this morning for a most pertinent talk.

11th October - Join author, Michael Smorenburg, who will be talking on 'Facts dressed up as Fiction'. Michael's greatest love is the ocean, keeping up with the latest breakthroughs in science and anthropology, understanding the cosmos and sharing all he learns by wrapping it up within compelling fictional stories.

8th November - Every year, for over 40 years, Editha Ward has set out, usually on her own, with very little planned except her flights there & back. She travels for the challenge of discovering different lands, the people and their culture and having to cope with whatever situation she finds herself in. Come and enjoy 'Over 40 years of Travel Tales', followed by a delicious tea and eats to end 2018 with a bang!

U3A members enjoyed a guided tour of the Zeitz Museum on Wednesday, 25th July. This was a special treat as our guide was none other than our July speaker and Curator of the Zeitz Museum, Julia Kabat. Julia so appreciated the enthusiasm at our meeting that she kindly volunteered to take our members on a personalised tour.

Farewell to our lovely Italian course leader, Giulia Lanzoni ... Giulia's husband has relocated to Myanmar and they have sadly left South Africa in mid-June. We will miss her smiling face and wish them well on their new journey!

But a new course is very popular ... Jennigay's writing course. Jennigay Coetzer has 30 years experience as a journalist, freelance writer, author and editor and is passionate about passing on her knowledge and experience to help as many people to develop and improve their writing skills. She believes that, with the right training and desire to do so, anyone can become a good writer.

To the delight of everyone, Linda Rose has started Duplicate Bridge Games for players who know the basics of bridge, but want to play under supervision in a congenial atmosphere. See course list for details.
